

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT MATRIX FOR LIVED/LIVING EXPERIENCE CIRCLES

Presented By:

Kerry Rempel (Lead Researcher)

Annika Kirk (Student Researcher)

INTRODUCTIONS

KERRY REMPEL, MBA, CPHR

Lead Researcher
Associate Dean,
Okanagan College School of Business

ANNIKA KIRK, STUDENT

Student Researcher
Okanagan College School of Business
Lived Experience

PROJECT COMMUNITY

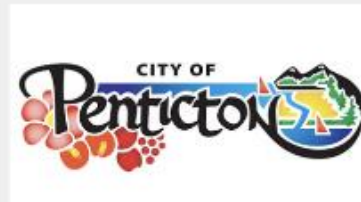

Stakeholders

Community initiated

Steering Committee

Funders & Service Provider

Research Team

3 lived experience
co-researchers

2 Community
researchers

Could an LLEC help address homelessness in Penticton (& other rural communities)?

THE PROCESS

LITERATURE REVIEW

Background research

FOCUS GROUPS

Two different sessions

FINAL OUTPUTS

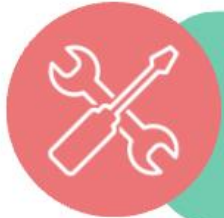

Technical & Community Reports

FINAL OUTPUTS

Technical Report

Toolkit

Community Report

THE WHY

Why should communities include lived experience voices?

THE ENGAGEMENT MATRIX

Resources	Consultation	Involvement	Engagement
Time
Relationships
Types of Input
Need for Follow-up

LEVELS OF ENGAGEMENT

CONSULTATION

INVOLVEMENT

ENGAGEMENT

ADDITIONAL MATRIX RESOURCES

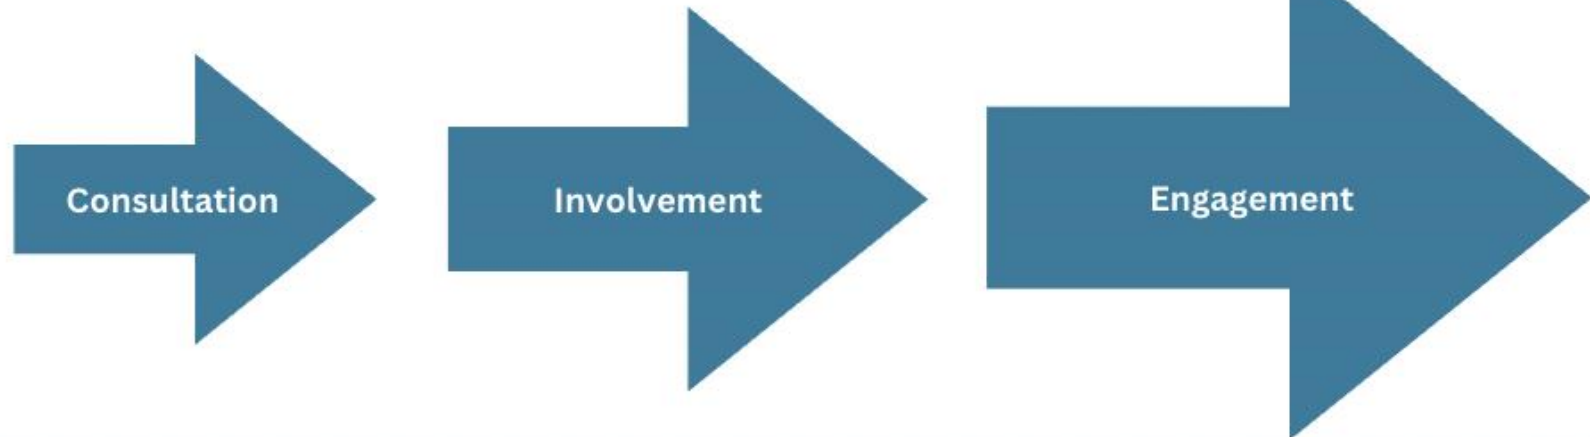

Skills/Training

Technology Required

Admin Support/Structure

HOW THE MATRIX SUPPORTS LLECS

Analyzes capacity & priorities

Determining request "fit"

Determining final outcomes

HOW THE MATRIX SUPPORTS COMMUNITIES

Finding a common language

Sets clear expectations

Identifies necessary resources & time

Understanding levels of commitment needed

NEXT STEPS

Partnerships with communities

Pilot & further develop matrix

Develop case studies

Continue building knowledge

THANK YOU

If you are interested in piloting
the toolkit or using the matrix
please contact Kerry Rempel at:

krempe1@okanagan.bc.ca